Who we are

Who is providing this notice? AIG Retirement Services is providing this notice on behalf of the companies listed below.

What we do

How does AIG Retirement Services protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We restrict access to employees, representatives, agents, or selected third parties who have been trained to handle nonpublic personal information.

How does AIG Retirement Services collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or provide account information
- seek advice about your investments or tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio
- tell us about your investment or retirement earnings

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.
