- This is a supplemental form and must be submitted with a VALIC distribution form.
 - If you are requesting a one time QCD this form must be sent with a Cash Distribution form.
 - If you are requesting all or a portion of your recurring periodic payment be sent to a charitable organization this form must be sent with an IRA Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) form or a Systematic Withdrawal form.
- To request QCDs from more than one IRA account, use a separate form for each account.
- A QCD is a nontaxable distribution made directly from an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) to a 501(c)(3) organization that is eligible to receive tax deductible contributions.
- You must be at least age 70½ when the QCD distribution is requested.
- The maximum annual QCD is $100,000. If you file a joint return, your spouse can also request a QCD up to $100,000.

- It is your responsibility to ensure that your IRA distribution complies with IRS rules. All transactions made using this form are reported to the IRS as an IRA distribution. VALIC will issue you a Form 1099R.
- You are responsible for keeping the same type of acknowledgement from the eligible organization that you would need to claim when taking any deduction for a charitable contribution.
- A QCD can count towards satisfying your Required Minimum Distribution (RMD).
- If this supplemental form is submitted with a distribution request from an employer sponsored plan or exceeds $100,000 your request will be rejected.
